

93+*2019 Kiona Chenin Blanc Estate Red Mountain Ice Wine

Clean, correct and supremely floral with a honeyed nose, the 2019 Chenin Blanc Estate Red Mountain Ice Wine offers intoxicating aromas of peach purée, honeysuckle, sweet citrus and apples poached in syrup. Full-bodied, unctuous and immaculately balanced, the palate shows an impressive weight, boasting a balanced sensation of energetic acidity and residual sweetness. Flavors of candied mango, raw honeycomb and grilled peaches indulgently coat the palate, making me forget that I'm drinking an ice wine from Red Mountain in Washington State. The wine continues to evolve in the mouth with persistence, demonstrating its power, precision and finesse. Bravo, this is devastatingly beautiful. I'm going to finish the glass. I'd love to revisit this wine in 20 years.

- Anthony Mueller (October, 2021)

Copyright 2022, The Wine Advocate, Inc. - Reprinted with permission