

2016 COLUMBIA VALLEY ESTATES CUVÉE

We're not Kiona Cellars. We're not Kiona Winery. We are Kiona Vineyards. That's an important distinction for us to make, because we grow grapes. For our own winery and for more than 60 others. Kiona Vineyards comprises several estate sites, all with their own distinct traits and tendencies. They are the essence of our family's forty-year tradition.

With that in mind, we'd like to introduce Estates Cuvée. It holds the distinction of being the only Kiona wine blended with fruit from all of our esteemed vineyards. Each site contributes in a meaningful way, resulting in an estate-grown wine that is uniquely representative of Washington state and our family's grape-growing operation.

Cabernet Sauvignon takes the driver's seat in the 2016 version of Estates Cuvée, and for good reason; it's delicious, we have it planted everywhere, and Red Mountain is famous for it. This wine provides a bird's-eye perspective of our vineyard operation; we think you'll enjoy the view.
